

PERSONAL RIGHTS - COMMUNITY CARE FACILITIES

1 EXPLANATION

The California Code of Regulations, Title 22 requires that any person admitted to a facility must be advised of his/her personal rights. Facilities are also required to post these rights in areas accessible to the public. Consequently, this form is designed to meet both the needs of persons admitted to facilities and the facility owners who are required to post these rights.

The back of this form describes the personal rights to be afforded each child admitted to a facility. The back of this form also provides the complaint procedures for the child and parent/guardian.

This form is to be reviewed, completed and signed by each child and/or parent/guardian upon admission to the facility. The child and/or parent/guardian also has the right to receive a completed copy of the originally signed form. The original signed copy shall be retained in the child's file which is maintained by the facility.
